KCD TEXAS | OCTOBER 6TH, 2023 | IRVING, TX

Irving Convention Center

A community event in the heart of Texas, bringing together diverse talent from across the United States to share and celebrate the cloud native ecosystem. Backed by the CNCF, the hub of cloud native computing, we are benefiting from the experience of other KCDs held around the world.

Mission

KCD Texas will be a single-day in-person technical event packed with exciting talks and plenty of networking opportunities. This will be the first edition of Kubernetes Community Days in Irving, TX

About Us

We are an inclusive and open community of engineers, developers, and professionals in the cloud native ecosystem. The attendees will be end users of your product and/or service.
